The Jack Dulaney Scholarship
Application Criteria and Submission Guidelines

Jack Dulaney and his wife, Aliff, owned and operated Dulaney Bus Services for 44 years. Serving the area of what is now the Central Greene School District, Jack was often behind the steering wheel of the buses owned by his company. He loved getting to know the students on his routes and always found time to encourage the students to work hard and succeed.

The Jack Dulaney Scholarship is established by his wife, Aliff, to encourage students to continue their education after high school.

Typically Awards One $4,000 scholarship, awarded as a 4-year scholarship ($1,000 per year). Students must provide verification of GPA and continued enrollment to be eligible for the second, third and fourth years of the scholarship.
